WONDERFUL CURE OF HEREDITARY SCROFULA:
This certificate is from the pen of a gentleman whose name appears on the journal of Congress—one who is extensively and favorably known:
It affords me pleasure to state that Dr. Jesse Hampton's Tincture has effected a most extraordinary cure of my slave boy Albert. The patient was three years old, and had the Scrofula—(his father is scrofulous.) The boy was a moving mass of sores from head to foot: the upper ilds of the eyes were much swollen, and turned inside out, exhibiting horrible mattering ulcers, that protruded over the eye-ball so as to produce blindness. It is strange, yet true, this child—that I felt resigned to see die as a relief from suffering—has been restored to health under the treatment of Dr. Hampton.

Latest from the Cuban Invaders. IMPORTANT FROM FLORIDA.

RENDEZVOUSING AMONG THE FLORIDA REEFS. Sailing of two Steamers with one thousand to twelve hundred Men for Cuba.

ORANGE KEY, BAHAMA BANKS, Aug. 1, 1851. Two small steamboats, from New Orleans, with from one thousand to twelve hundred men on board, anchored in Los Mimbros roads last evening, and after stopping for about two hours, passed this place, steering E. S. E. It is well known here that the Cubans have purchased these steamers, and that those on board formed the auxiliary force expected by the Patriots from the United States. It is impossible to conjecture the cause of so many small craft, with such able-bodied crews, assembling along the reef and among the innumerable unless that which excites the public mind in re gard to the political movements now transpiring in Cuba.

The destination of the steamers and the flo tilla in this archipelago is unquestionably the bay of Nuevitas, which is the entrance to Puerto Principe, the river emptying into the bay running into the interior of the town of Principe. The approach to the bay of Nuevitas by troops must be made by sea from Havana, and not an oyster boat can now move in these waters unknown to the invaders. At Puerto Principe, or on the opposite side of the island, and equi-distant, are the town and river of St. Cruz, which is accessible to small vessels of war, and, to a certainty, at one of these two points will the men from the Reef and from the steamers effect a landing.

The white population of Cuba does not reach 600,000, and the free colored and slave as many. The Creole whites are 140,000, and the free colored 40,000, equal to 180,000, all of whom are capable of bearing arms and favorable, it is said, to the revolution. Opposed to this force are 20,000 Spaniards belonging to the Island and 23,000 Spaniards record the Island, and 23,000 Spanish troops.

The next intelligence will be decisive, and will declare to the world that Cuba has severed the link that connected her with Spain, or rivetted it more firmly, to endure for ages.
Yours, very truly, &c., &c.

BLACKWOOD'S MAGAZINE.

BLACKWOOD'S MAGAZINE, AND THE BRITISH QUARTERLY REVIEWS.

Owing to the late revolutions and counter-revolutions among the navions of Europe, which have followed each other in such quick succession, and of which "the end is not yet," the leading periodicals of Great Britain have become invested with a degree of interest hitherto unknown. They occupy a middle ground between the hasty, disjointed, and necessarily imperfect records of the newspapers, and the elaborate and ponderous treaties to be furnished by the historian at a future day. Whoever reads these periodicals obtains a correct and connected account of all the important political events of the Old World, as they occur, and learns the various conclusions drawn from them by the leading spirits of the age. The American publishers therefore deem it proper to call renewed attention to the works they publish, and the very low prices at which they are offered to subscribers. The following is their list, viz:

The LONDON QUARTERLY REVIEW,

THE LONDON QUARTERLY REVIEW, THE EDINBURGH REVIEW, THE NORTH BRITISH REVIEW, THE WESTMINSTER REVIEW, and BLACKWOOD'S EDINBURGH MAGAZINE.

The Westminster Review, and Blackwood's Edinburga Magazing.

In these periodicals are contained the views, moderately though clearly and firmly expressed, of the three greatest parties in England—Tory, Whig, and Radical; "Blackwood" and the "London Quarterly" are Tory, the "Edinburgh Review" Whig, and the "Westminster Review" Liberal. The "North British Review" owes its establishment to the last great ecclesiastical movement in Scotland, and is not ultra in its views on any one of the grand departments of human knowledge. It was originally edited by Dr. Chalmers, and now, since his death, is conducted by his son-in-law, Dr. Hanna, associated with Sir David Brewster. Its literary character is of the very highest order. The "Westminster," though reprinted under that title only, is published in England under the title of the "Foreign Quarterly and Westminster," it being in fact a union of the two Beviews formerly published and reprinted under separate titles. It has, therefore, the advantage, by this combination, of uniting in one work the best features of both, as heretofore issued.

The above Periodicals are reprinted in New York, imme-

The above Periodicals are reprinted in New York, immediately on their arrival by the British steamers, in a beautiful clear type, on fine white paper, and are faithful copies of the originals—Blackwood's Magazine being an exact fac simile of the Edinburgh edition.

Amherst College, Dec. 25, 1848.

Mr. Robert Scars—Dear Sir: I have looked over the entire series of your valuable publications with much interest and profit; and am quite surprised at the amount of literary labor you have performed, and the research it must have cost you to obtain so many fine illustrations, while you have an active superintendence of an extensive business. I am also gratified at the decidedly moral and religious influence which your books will exert, and cannot but hope that they will do much to counteract the effects of that light and immoral literature which deluges the land, and, like the frogs of Egypt, comes up even to the kneading troughs of our kitchens. May you live long to follow your plans.

Respectfully and sincerely, your obliged servant, EDW ARD HITCHCOCK.

This well known and extensive establishment invites Merchants, Manufacturers, and Bankers, to an investigation of its system, and gratuitous test of its records of the standing and responsibility of traders in the U. States.

Our increased patronage has enabled us, during the past year, to open offices in Gincinnati, Louisville, St. Louis, and New Orleans; these, in connection with our long established offices in Boston, New York, and Baltimore, enable us to offer facilities and advantages which time and experience alone could accumulate, and which we believe are unequalled.

We are prepared to make collections in any of the States, Territories, Canada, England, Ireland, Scotland, France, Germany, and in any commercial port of the world, and will pay particular attention to old and doubtful debts, in the collection of which class we have extraordinary facilities, and have been unusually successful.

Having full lists and reports of nearly all the Attorneys in the United States, we are at all times prepared to furnish you, gratuitously, the names of good and responsible lawyers in any part of the United States and Canadas. Connected with our Agency is a Commissioner for nearly all the States, who is enabled to afford every facility and legal form for preparing accounts, &c., for immediate use, thereby avoiding a delay often fatal to the collection of a debt. ties, and have been unusually successful
